ONE DEAD--- ONE DYING

Result of the Gun Fight Thursday Afternoon

The shooting that occurred in the New Tivoli Saloon Thursday evening has already resulted in one death The other victim cannot live At a late hour last night he was seized with cramps, and the physicians give no hope for his recovery or living even through the night

Ed Broderick succumbed to his bullet wounds about five o clock yesterday morning He died at the county hospital His injuries were not thought to be as serious as those of Frank Ralston, but an examination after death revealed a jagged hole in his abdomen, through which the bullet passed to his hip

Mr Ralston was unconscious nearly ever since he received his wounds and he has been unable to give out a connected account of the tragedy The death of Broderick doubtless does away with any legal proceedings except the inquest He had been placed under arrest immediately after the shooting

Later—Drs Woods Gibson and Lewis, who are attending Frank Ralston, reported him at 2 30 this morning to be somewhat better His mother will arrive tomorrow

Now an Engineer

George Voss formerly of this city, is spending a few days here He is running an engine on the D & R G Since Mr Voss was in Reno last he has been in two accidents, both of which did him considerable injury from which he has entirely recovered.

STANAWAY RECITAL

A Reno Audience Entertained by a Sweet Singer

Miss Alice Mabel Stanaway's concert last evening was a complete success, both as to attendance and quality of the entertainment. Miss Stanaway's voice is a truly remarkable one with a truly remarkable range, her lower register being entirely free from the throaty or masculine property so often noticeable in contraltos, and her high notes having a power and a dramatic quality that is rare in any voice A brilliant future in the music world is surely hers, a fact which is a source of great gratification to her many friends in Reno

She was splendidly accompanied by Miss Clara M Field, whose rendition of all the accompaniments, some of which are very difficult, was far more than satisfactory and whose conception of the beautiful Brahm's songs contributed greatly to their charm Both ladies were tendered handsome boquets

Miss Stanaway's programme was admirably chosen, in fact it would be difficult to select a list of songs better calculated to deminstrate her ability and versatility "A Summer Night," by Goring-Thomas, brought out her pure lower tones to perfection and the three songs by Brahms, especially 'Die Mainacht' were sung with rare finish and expression "Fruchlingszeit' by Becker and "The Spring has Come" by Maude Valerie White (all of whose songs are delicious) were sung with a dash and spirit that gave them their full value

For encores Miss Stanaway sang My Heart's in the Highlands," "Last Night and 'Bonnie Sweet Bessie, the Pride of Dundee," in the latter two of which she accompanied herself

The climax of the programme and the selection in which Miss Stanaway showed best the extent of her power and control of voice was the scene from 'Aida' which she handled with an ease and certainty of tone as well as a dramatic force and fire seldom excelled on the operatic stage.

Miss Stanaway is to leave us soon and is contemplating a trip abroad for a finishing course in Italy or France. It is a great pity that we are deprived of the pleasure of hearing oftener this latest of the stars in the constellation that has made Nevada famous as the birthplace of talent and Miss Stanaway's many friends will follow her future course with the greatest of interest and the best of wishes for her success and look forward to her homecoming and a 'return engagement'

A Rushing Business

The Southern Pacific Company, says Station Agent Williamson, is doing a largely increased business at the local station. During August both the freight and passenger business was in excess of that for July and much better than during August of last year.

Are Guests in Reno

Mr and Mrs. D. A. C. Gaskill of Oakland, who have been visiting in the eastern States, are staying with Mrs. J. W. Fraser of this city for a few days.

Messrs. Libby & Updike, the assayers, are doing a rushing business. They say that prospecting must be receiving a fresh impetus, judging from the call made upon them.

Splendid Material

P. A. McCarran, who is a candidate for the Assembly from Washoe county, will be a worthy representative. He acquired his education in the public schools of Nevada and its University and is an exemplary young man. See his announcement in another column.

A Small Smashup

Early yesterday morning the delivery wagon of the Palace Bakery met with a mishap on Commercial Row. A king bolt broke, the wagon was turned over and Driver Maginnis was thrown out.

Delegates Returning

All outgoing trains yesterday carried away crowds of delegates Ae few of the stalwarts will remain in Reno over Sunday and rest up from their labors.

What Governor Sparks Said:

"It has been alleged by the Republican press that I am a goldbug and that I voted for McKinley.

"I am not a goldbug; I did not vote for McKinley. I never voted for a Republican for President and I never will."

WHEELMEN IN SESSION

Report of the Business Meeting Held Last Evening

Last evening the Reno Wheelmen's Club held its regular business meeting There was a large attendance and great interest was shown by all members present in the matters which came before the meeting.

Seven new members were elected and eleven applications for membership were received.

The members of the Modern Woodmen's band were received into the club. That excellent organization, under the leadership of Prof. Hastings, will hereafter be known as the Wheelmen's band It is learned that they will soon order handsome new uniforms.

Mr Kornmeyer announced that the first annual ball by the Wheelmen's relay team will be given two weeks from last night in the club building. This is a social, and the first one, for the benefit of the boys who have made the Reno Wheelmen's club what it is, and the social should be well patronized

A punching bag has been ordered purchased for the club room and interest in the manly art will doubtless increase

The amendment to the constitution changing the age limit of new members from 18 to 21 years was defeated

ASSISTING NEVADA

What a "Bloated Monopoly" Is Doing for the State

Division Agent Prentice has received the following letter from headquarters It plainly isdicates the motives of the Southern Pacific Company which is now actively assisting in the upbuilding of Nevada

Please bear in mind that a very important part of your duty is to build up the territory tributary to this Company's lines under your jurisdiction in population, manufacturing, farming and commercial enterprises generally For this purpose you should seek out districts offering special inducements or opportunities for immigration, develop to utmost extent latent possibilities of your territory through increasing and diversifying present productions, and direct attention of various trade and commercial bodies to opportunities for establishing manufacturing or other industries.

If you are not already a member of the Board of Trade or other commercial organization of your city, you should be that you may be in touch with the mercantile public and their [illegible] secured through various [illegible] to you, information of prospective industries or enterprises which will prove of value to this company's [illegible] must take a prominent part in furthering such projects, bringing them to the notice of the trade organizations when necessary and calling attention of this office to cases where matter is of sufficient importance or requires assistance beyond your authority to extend

In other words, consider yourself an Industrial Agent for the Southern Pacific Company.

WM. SPROULE.

Tonopah, though one of the latest of the newly exploited mining camps of the great West, has reached a stage where it can consistently and honestly claim that for age and in proportion to population, it is the greatest mining camp in the world, says the Miner

The town, which now has a population approximating 3000 souls, is picturesquely situated quasi-basin like in the heart of the San Antonio range of mountains, at an elevation of 6200 feet above sea level. To the west of it extends a long stretch of level, sandy country, but on the north and south, and here and there to the east the chain of mountains continues

The main thoroughfare of the town is a wide street closely built up with business houses, and perhaps half a mile long. At its eastern end two roads branch out at an acute angle, forming almost the letter Y. Both of these roads or streets are devoted to residence purposes, and many pretty and substantial homes are being erected thereon On both sides of the main street, even up to the steep incline of the mountains, houses have been built and tents stretched, and these are in the main inhabited by as prosperous and happy a set of people as ever drew the breath of life.

A TRIBUTE TO GENIUS

Written Beneath the Genius' Eyes Without His Knowledge

There are poets and poets and poets. In the first class belong the immature calf lovers and antique maidens, among the second are those who have a clot of blood on the brain, a tendency to flowing locks and a "to let" expression of the eye. In the last class are the writers of readable verse, verse that jingles and has the yellow worth in it to create the jingle, verse that has a combination of meter and good, sound horse sense, that leaves no tired feeling in its rear and makes a sensible man cry for more.

Prominent in this third class, though the numbers should have retrograded, is Sam C Dunham, who is now seated in a dim corner of this office cussing the poor cigar proffered him by the writer.

Sam is now half owner of the Tonopah Bonanza and is helping to make it the best weekly publication on the coast. He has wandered all over the terrestrial and has written poetry in every clime. While he was up in Alaska for the Department of Labor and later taking census of that territory, he composed a booklet of seventy odd pages that has already run through a number of editions and is destined for a number more. Sam, who has been dubbed, "The Short-Haired Singer of the Yukon Flats," named his poetic offering, "The Goldsmith of Nome and Other Rime." It is full of humanity, poetic fire, world wisdom and good grammar.

Death of Mr. Allen

Mrs. Fulton and son, Frank Smith, went to Gardnerville, called by the death of Jesse Allen. Mr. Allen is also a brother of Mrs. Sam Johnson of this city. He died at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral will take place at 2 Sunday afternoon in Genoa. Mr Allen was well known in this city.

THE CHOICE OF NEVADA

What the Examiner Says of Senatorship in This State

Under the heading "The Nevada Senatorship," last Thursday Examiner contains the following editorial:

From a national point of view the most important feature of the political situation in Nevada is the candidacy of Representative Newlands for the United States Senatorship. Nevada occupies the very unique position of being a strong anti-Republican State represented by two Republican Senators, neither of whom was elected by the Republican party. The term if Senator Jones expires on the fourth day of next March. Mr. Newlands is an avowed candidate for the position, and the indications are that he will be successful.

The political forces opposed to the Republican party are divided into two organizations—the Democratic and Silver parties. Although these organizations are distinct, they are agreed on everything affecting Nevada's interests, while on national questions there is much in common between them. Complete fusion is the program, and both have strongly indorsed Mr' Newlands for the Senate. At the last election their combined strength was greatly in excess of the Republican, and with perfect harmony there is no reason to doubt that they will carry the State.

The election of Mr. Newlands will be gratifying from a Democratic point of view, but beyond that it should be highly satisfactory to the Pacific and Intermountain States generally, aside from mere partisan considerations. His record in the House of Representatives has been an enviable one. His standing at all times has been excellent, and as a member of the Committees on Foreign Affairs, Banking and Currency, and Ways and Means he has made a reputation broadly national in character. He was a strong factor in the legislation which led to the annexation of Hawaii; he has been active and prominent in all measures relating to Cuba, opposing the Republican plan of reciprocity, but favoring the annexation of the island; he is, of course, in full sympathy with his people upon the money question, and he rendered most effective aid in securing the enactment of the irrigation law, from which the arid West hopes to realize far-reaching benefits.

Mr. Newlands has been indefatigable in his efforts on behalf of his State, and having served faithfully for nearly ten years in the lower house, it would seem as if he had fairly earned a promotion to the Senate. Thus it appears to outsiders who are familiar with his career, and such, evidently, is the view of the conventions of the two parties which together are believed to constitute the dominant political force in the Sagebrush State.

The Exhibit Has Been Returned to Reno

Major Ingalls returned from San Francisco yesterday, where he had charge of the Nevada Mineral Exhibit arranged by Mr. Prentice and himself. The attraction was one of the finest in the Ferry building. The visitors' book shows over four thousand signatures, and not one person in twenty who examined the exhibit placed their signatures in the book.

The exhibit has been boxed up and shipped back to Reno, where it will be opened as soon as there is a suitable place for it.

Photographs taken of the exhibit show that Nevada made a splendid exdisplay.

The Southern Pacific company aided the exhibit in every was possible, transporting the exhibit back and forward free.

Unsurveyed Land

There is an appropriation of $10,000, by Congress, standing for the purpose of surveying the unsurveyed land in the State of Nevada. Anyone having in view the location of such lands should apply for information to U. S. Surveyor General, at Reno.

A GRATIFYING RESULT

THE Democratic and Silver Party conventions have met, harmoniously effected a fusion, nominated a ticket and adjourned. There was less friction than was feared by the conservative and sincere advocates of fusion in both parties, and was hoped for by the Republican leaders, whose only chance for a successful campaign rested in the failure of the two organizations to unite their forces in opposition to the common enemy. The result has fixed the political status of the State beyond peradventure and permanently placed the State of Nevada in the column of commonwealths which in 1904 will be arrayed in opposition to the party of trusts, monometallism, imperialism, oppressive tariff taxation and all other measures for the further enrichment of the few at the expense of the many. Never in the political history of Nevada was such earnestness and enthusiasm manifested, and never were conventions of any party so fully represented from the various counties as signalized the membership of the two bodies that finished their work last Thursday evening. Each convention had a larger attendance of electoral delegates, with fewer proxies, than any political body of the kind that ever convened within the borders of the State, and each was composed of a greater proportion of representative men, with less professional politicians, than characterized the membership of any convention organized since the admission of Nevada as a State. They were assemblages of nearly three hundred persons who although divided into two bodies were actuated and inspired by a common purpose, which was the unification of the elements oppressing the oppressive and destructive policy of the party which at the present time holds and controls the executive and legislative branches of our National government. Such unification was successfully and perfectly effected which will be further emphasized on the fourth day of next November by the voice of at least three-fourths of the voters of the State.

The platforms of the two conventions although formulated without collusion or any intention upon the part of the two committees, similarity are harmonious in every respect and might have been exchanged one for the other by the platform committees of the two bodies, without causing a note of dissention in the body of either convention. They represent the sentiment of an overwhelming majority of the people of Nevada as will be manifested by the returns from the different counties throughout the State.

THE PLATFORMS

THE candidates of the Democratic and Silver parties of Nevada are now before the people as a fusion ticket, and they stand upon what is essentially a fusion platform. Each of these parties adopted its own declaration of principles. These declarations differ slightly in matters of detail, and much in phraseology, but very little in substance. Both are strongly for the free coinage of silver. The mode of statement is conservative and dignified, but there is no weakening in Nevada's demand upon this question. The specific endorsement of the Kansas City money plank in itself definitely settles the status of the Democracy of Nevada; but this is reinforced by a detailed statement which leaves nothing in doubt. So far as the Silver party is concerned it needed no platform declaration upon silver. Like Bryan, it is a platform in itself. But it has a declaration in favor of free coinage which s absolutely unequivocal and which cannot possibly be misunderstood.

Each party demands legislation for the curbing of the Trusts, and the modification of the tariff so as to prevent these cornerants of business from overcharging the American consumer. Upon imperialism, bank currency, labor and all matters of local import the two parties are in perfect accord. But aside from this the candidates of both parties have strongly and unreservedly endorsed both platforms; so that for the purposes of the campaign the two platforms are to be considered as one. Hence they should be read together, and the one taken to reinforce the other wherever reinforcement is necessary.

The Democratic platform is rather more elaborate than that of the Silver Party, and it is certainly one of the most comprehensive and forceful ever presented by any party to the voters of Nevada. It cannot be satisfactorily reviewed within the limits of an editorial of reasonable length. It should be read and studied by the voters themselves. It has been most carefully drawn, and while its arraignment of the Republican party is unsparing, the arraignment is couched in dignified language, and better still, it is fully sustained by the record which that party has made.

Its flaying of Stewart is probably the most severe ever administered by any political party in this country to one who was once a trusted public official of high rank. No one seems to question the justice of the castigation, but a few have expressed the opinion that Mr. Stewart comes too near being a political corpse to merit any notice whatever. This would be eminently true were it not for the circumstance that he has suddenly loomed up as the leader of the party which so frequently denounced him as a "political traitor" of the deepest dye, and which party he has just as frequently denounced as a mere machine for the registry of the will of the "gold conspirators."

Without descending to meaningless, ranting, demagogy, the platform puts itself fairly in line with the just demands of labor. It could not have done otherwise for the Democratic party, regardless of all platform utterances, is essentially the party of the people, of whom the laboring elements constitute the great bulk. The chief aim of the National Democracy is to bring back the government to those foundation principles of justice and equality, which durng all the earler days of the Republic constituted its true glory and greatness.

The concluding plank, which deals with the State government, is worthy of the most careful consideration. It invites attention to the splendid record made by our State administrations since the Republican party lost its predominance, and does this for the purpose of meeting the false cry that capital and vested interests generally will be insecure unless the Republican party is in control of the State government. The truth is that while the Democratic party is not like its opponents, the creature of the capitalistic classes, it has never yet aimed an unjust blow at capital, and would protect alike both the rich and the poor. But it makes eternal war upon that policy which shapes all our National legislation to the primary advantage of certain capitalistic classes, leaving labor in all its forms to pick up whatever crumbs it incidentally may—that is such as the favored classes may voluntarily dole out.

So far as this State is concerned the interests of both capital and labor will be best safeguarded by the Democratic and Silver parties, because the policy of these two parties is a policy of Western industrial development. Let any Philadelphia capitalist who has invested in Nevada mining properties ask himself how the policy of the Republican party is of advantage to his investment, and if he doesn't have an inward tussle in finding the advantage, then he must be one of those lawyers from the city of brotherly love who are popularly supposed to represent a superlative type of ingenuity. he condition of our mining industry has a most important, almost vital bearing upon all other business in the State, and therefore affects the value of all investments.

The Democratic and Silver parties of this State are not composed of anarchists and hobos. They comprise a large percentage of the very best elements of our people. In their councils we find men of brains, and men of wealth, and men who have both brains and welath—men who are and have been closely identified with its most important interests, who love the State and its people just a little better than they love any other State or any other people. Such are the men who have framed and adopted these two platforms, and they may be relied upon to give Nevada a government, that will mete out equal and exact justice to all who cast their lots with us in the grand work of developing our mines, building up our cities and converting our sagebrush plains and valleys into smiling, productive farms.

Twice Told Tales of State Happenings.

A big body of copper ore has been found in Saxon mine in Ely.

The people of Paradise valley have succeeded in closing up the last house of ill fame there.

The Pactolus group of mines in Nye county in the vicinity of Tonopah have been bonded for $125,000.

A brick yard has been established at Gardnerville. It was made necessary by the increase in building operations there.

The Reese River Reveille is informed that a sale of the Pactolin mines in Nye county has been made for $200,000.

Citizens of Berlin, Nye county, drove the Chinese out of that place last week for insolent conduct toward waiter girls.

There are 800 hives of bees in Lovelock valley and the owners expect to ship four carloads of honey this year.

So far 342 voters have registered in Storey county, and of that number fifteen have just reached the age of twenty-one years.

James L. Butler has a standing reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of cruelty to animals in Tonopah.

Searchlight, Lincoln county, is a camp that is being heard from. It is rapidly taking rank with the foremost of Nevada towns in prosperity and activity.

The length of the pipe line to bring water to Tonopah from Twin river will be seventy miles and capable of delivering one million gallons in each twenty-four hours.

The new mill and concentrator for the Nevada Chief company arrived at Wabuska Thursday and will be hauled to the mine at Rockland immediately.—Lyon County Times.

For the several hundredth time, more or less, the Silver Peak mines are undergoing the process of examination and sampling anent a sale at the same old stand of $750,000. This time the experts—five in number—hail from New York and Philadelphia and are said to be guns of superior calibre.—Tonopah Bonanza.

The Lincoln county Searchlight says it is reported that five engineers headed by John Hays Hammond, the South African mining engineer of Jameson raid fame, and accompanied by Theodore Hearst, cousin of W. R. Hearst, will make a trip overland from Needles to Salt Lake, in the interest of the Hearst estate in a few days. They will include Searchlight in their itinerary and probably visit the Green Monster mine at Sandy, which property belongs to the Hearst estate.

The Bonanza says Messrs. T. L. Oddie and F. J. Siebert of Tonopah have purchased the Yankee Blade group of mining claims, which are situated about four miles from Austin, Lander county, from James Cassitry. This group embraces three of the most valuable claims in that district. The ore of seven different ledges runs from $50 to $200 per ton, while the late owner has taken out ore which after hauling netted him over $5,000 per ton, besides numerous shipments of $200 to $400 ore.

Particulars of a feat not often recorded in the annals of precious metal mining reached the offices of the Dexter-Tuscarora Gold Mining Company yesterday. It consisted of the breaking down of 1700 tons of gold with one blast the mass having estimated value of $5 per ton, or $8,500. The performance serves to indicate the magnitude of a deposit being worked in one claim belonging to the company, and probably makes a new record for the breaking down of ore in a vein formation.

Notice to Democrats

All Democrats of outside precincts are requested to hold similar meetings and forward the names of the delegates so chosen to John Sunderland, Jr., Secretary of the Committee at Reno, Nevada. By order of the committee.

A SURE CURE FOR DIARRHOEA.

Coming as it does, in the busiest season, when a man can least afford to lose time, a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea is very desirable. Anyone who has given it a trial will tell you that the quickest, surest and most pleasant remedy in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is no loss of time when it is used, as one or two doses of it will cure any ordinary attack. It never fails, not even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

THE BEST DIARRHOEA MEDICINE ON EARTH.

That is what Mr. W. E. Landers, a prominent farmer near Indianapolis, Ind., says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read his testimonial: "It gives me great pleasure to tell you how much Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has done for me. I have used it for nine years and I think it is the best medicine on earth. It has saved my life several times. I would not think of being without a bottle of it in the house." For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

SAVES A WOMAN'S LIFE.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by S. J. Hodgkinson. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Coach Steckle of the University football team went below last night to complete arrangements for a series of football games. The locals will play, among other teams, those of University of Utah, University of California, Stanford University, Reliance and Olympics. The football team promises to be the best ever produced by this University and there is an excellent chance that Nevada will carry off the coast championship, something it really earned two years ago.
